

H21 Hybrid Working at Heights & Work Positioning Harness

The H21 Hybrid Full Body Harness is a multi-purpose harness utilising a combination of the best factors from our H11 and H12 series. It is suitable for both every day use and technical suspension related tasks.

H21 Standard Features

Quick release buckles supplied as standard

Rear Dorsal D's

Front Fall Arrest D and Pole Strap Attachment Points

Confined Space Pick up Points with Extra Padding for Comfort
Allows user to be lifted as vertically in line as possible

Fall Indicator
Exposes red tag if harness has been shock loaded to alert personnel

Padded Leg Straps

Large Angled Work Positioning D Ring

Chest Croll and Strap

Options

Webbing Options

All webbing is water resistant and UV degradation tested to Australian Standards. Available in:

Standard - UV Resistant Polyester

Fire Proof - Nomex coated Kevlar

Buckles & Adjusters

Positioned for easier connection and reduced pressure on hips. Available fittings include:

- Standard Mild Steel Fittings
- Stainless Steel Fittings
- Mild Steel Quick Release
- Stainless Steel Quick Release

Modulars & Accessories

- Reflective Tape on Webbing

Materials & Construction

- 44mm Polyester webbing
- Minimum breaking load 15 kN
- Zinc plated fittings as standard
- Water/UV resistant webbing
- Weight 1.2kg

Testing & Quality Control

- 100% visual inspection
- Conforms to AS1891.1, License Number 1270
- Manufactured under an ISO 9001 Certified Quality Assurance System

All harnesses to be inspected every 6 months (minimum) as required by AS/NZS 1891.4 : 2009